BLOOMSBURY

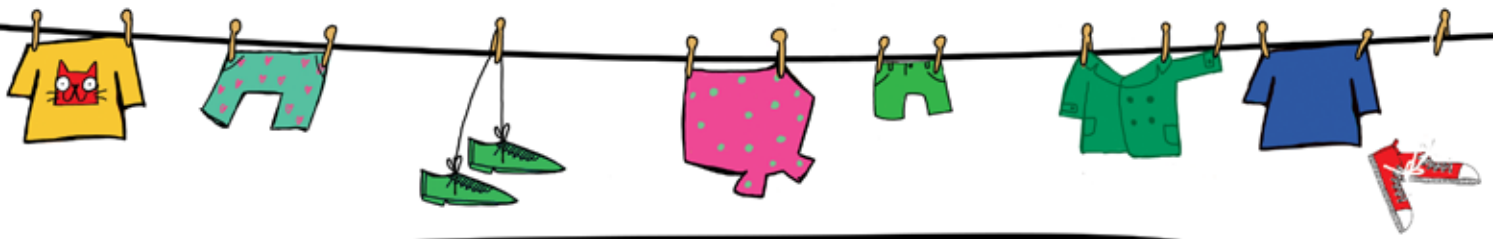

Missing pants!

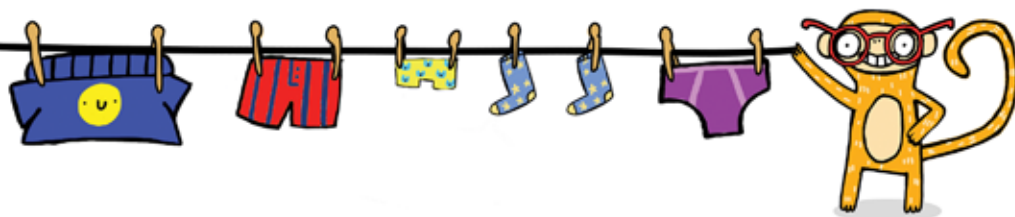

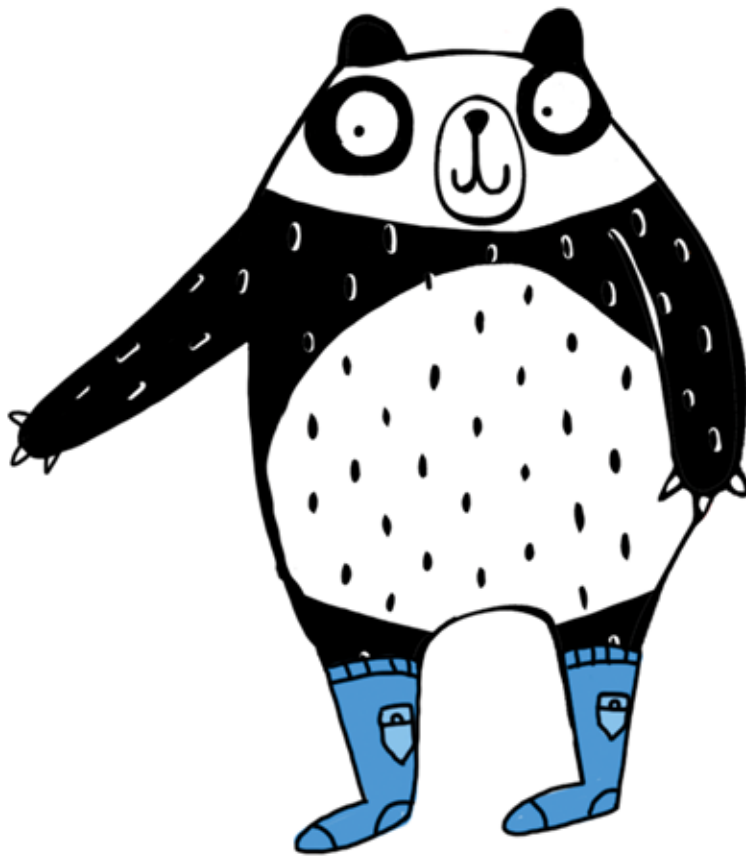

Pants are the first thing we need to put on in the morning, but it seems that they have all blown away from the washing line! Can you draw on some replacement pants?

Pin the pants on Panda!

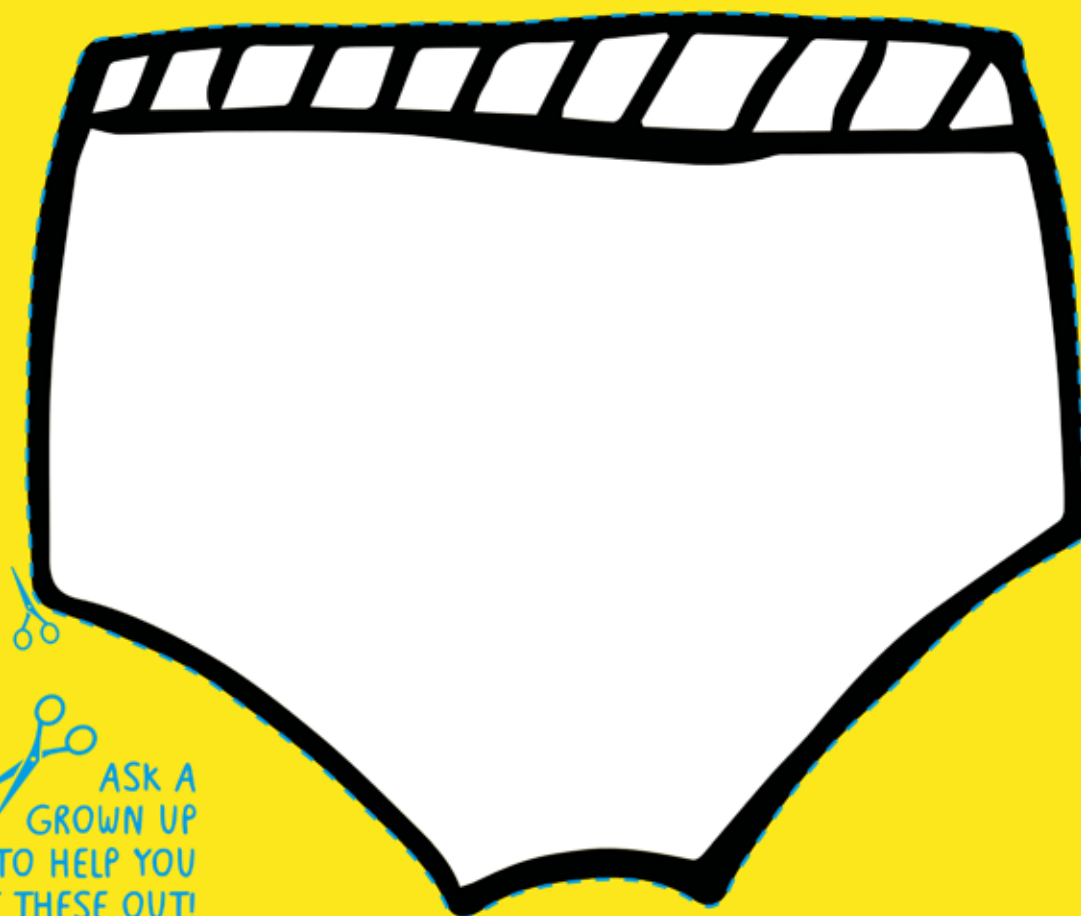

Oh dear, it looks like Panda has lost his pants. Help him not to be pantless by drawing a pair of pants on his bottom. Remember, you can make the pants as silly as you like!

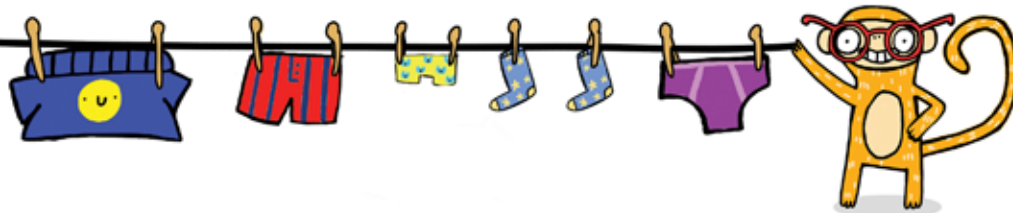

Design your own silly pants!

Sometimes our pants get mixed up in the wash, or turn pink if someone leaves a red sock in the washing machine. Design your own personal pair of pants that you will never lose because they are so pantifyingly UNIQUE! You can have spots, stars, rainbows or even your own name on them!

ASK A GROWN UP TO HELP YOU CUT THESE OUT!

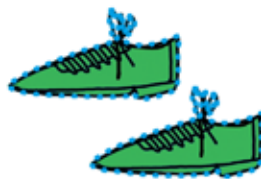

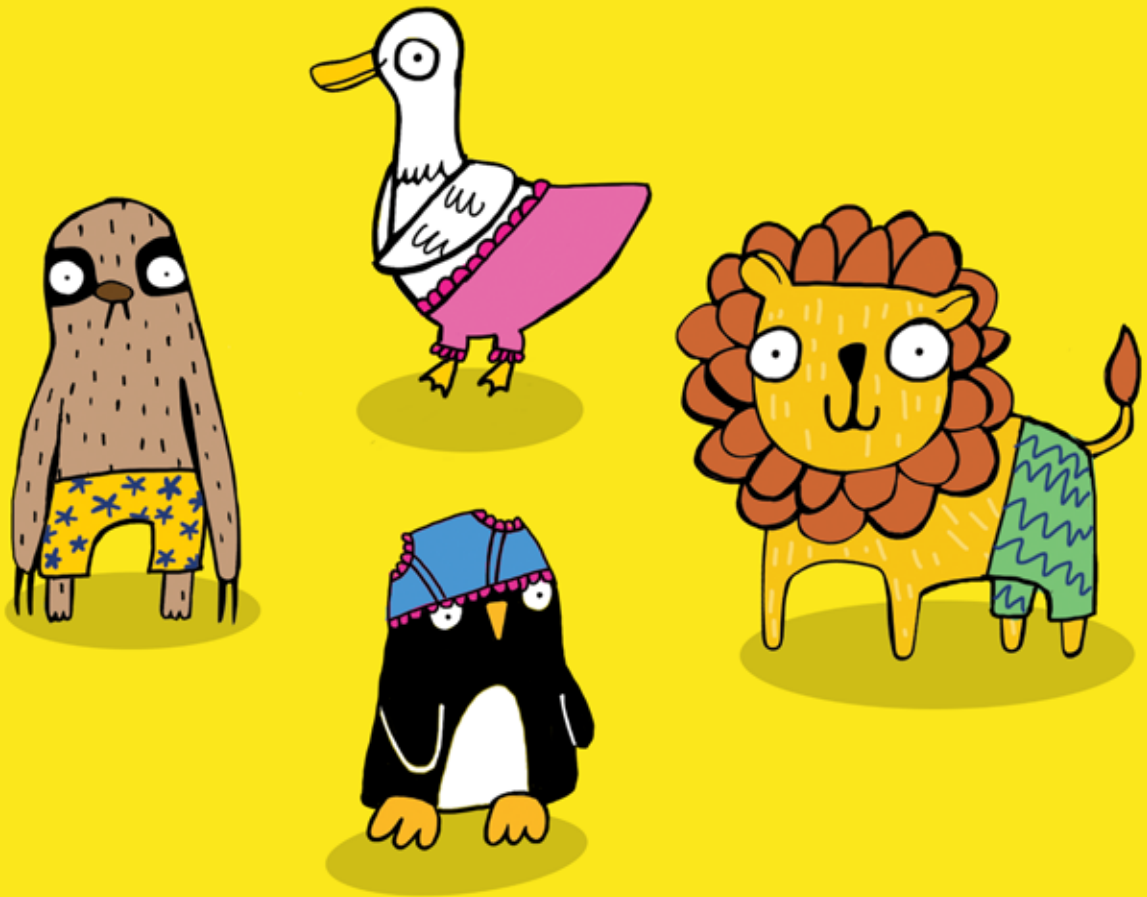

BLOOMSBURY

What comes after pants?

After we've got our pants on in the morning, we are ready for socks, shoes, hats and lots of other cool and cosy things to keep us warm. Can you get these animals dressed and ready for the day? Ask a grown up to help you cut out the items of clothing provided to put on the animals.

BLOOMSBURY

Where's Wombat?

There's been a pants emergency and all of the animals have flocked to the pants shop to buy some new ones! Poor wombat has got lost in the crowd, can you find him amongst all of the other animals? We'll give you a clue ... he is wearing a pair of wombat wellies ...

The PANTS challenge
The word PANTS appears 23 times in this activity pack (not including this bubble!). That's a LOT of PANTS! Did you get it right?
